

GENERAL CONDITIONS

- For all registrations, the reference date is December 31st, 2019; a proof of age may be required (birth certificate, health insurance card and/or driver's license).
- Complete payment is required to confirm a registration at the ski school, to obtain a season pass and/or an equipment rental.
- Administrative fee of $25.00 (taxes included), per participant, is charged for any cancellation or change.
- Unless you request us not to do so, you authorize Mont Rigaud to include you in our advertising and marketing campaigns.

SKI SCHOOL

- The ski school reserves the right to change the schedule or to cancel a course.
- No refund or credit is granted for an absence to a course, regardless of the reason.
- WEATHER – The parent or the participant is responsible for contacting Mont Rigaud to verify if the ski hill is in operation or if there is cancellation of the courses.
- In case of cancellation due to bad weather, courses (8 weeks programs) are automatically postponed to the end of the season.

SEASON PASS

- A refund or a credit (pro rata) can only be asked for a major medical reason or because of a move (proof required). No refund or credit is granted after February 15th, 2020, regardless of the reason.

EQUIPMENT RENTAL

- The equipment shall be returned on April 5, 2020 at the latest. You will be subjected to a penalty of $10.00 (taxes included), per day/per equipment, if you omit to return the equipment back by this date.

MOUNTAIN CODE OF CONDUCT

Code adopted under the act respecting safety in sports. This Code applies all persons practicing snow sports:

1. Remain in control of your speed and direction. Make sure you can stop and avoid any person or obstacle;
2. Yield the right of way to persons downhill and choose a course that ensures their safety;
3. Stop on a trail only if you are visible from above and if you are not obstructing the trail;
4. Yield the right of way to persons uphill when entering a trail and at intersections;
5. If you are involved in or witness an accident, remain at the scene and identify yourself to a first-aider;
6. Use and wear at all times a proper device to prevent runaway equipment;
7. Keep out of the lifts and trails if your ability is impaired through use of alcohol or drugs;
8. Obey all signs and warnings and never venture off the trails or onto a closed trail.

There are elements of risk that common sense and personal awareness can help reduce. Regardless of how you decide to use the slopes, always show courtesy to others. Observe the code listed above and share with others the responsibility for a great outdoor experience. You must obey all other rules and signs pertaining to any particular activity as marked out by the resort.

Know the code. Be safety conscious. It is your responsibility!

The participant recognizes, accepts and assumes the inherent risks of snow sliding sports such as skiing and snowboarding. The participant assumes all risks of personal injury or any material damage resulting from the said risks. Among others, the following lists the elements considered inherent risk to the normal practice of a snow sliding sport:

changing climatic conditions, changes in the steepness of the slope, the presence of natural obstacles and any other natural features, such as ditches, crevices and brooks, rocks, earth, uncovered spots, trees, trees regrowth, natural bushes and stumps, and any other natural obstacles, ice and ice patches, any change to surface condition, collisions with skiers or other persons, the presence of pylons, poles and any other structures used in the operation of the ski area and collisions with these elements, the use of ski lifts, the presence on the slopes of grooming equipment and emergency vehicles and snowmaking equipment.

The contract in virtue of which the present registration form was concluded is subject to the laws in force in Quebec. The ski school registrants and the holders of a season pass, as well as Mont Rigaud, agree to elect domicile in the judicial district of Beauharnois, province of Quebec, and declare that same is the appropriate forum for any and all claims, of whatever nature, arising from the contract in virtue of which the present was issued.

I read and understood the general conditions.
